

Chip Hummer, M.D.

Dr. Hummer graduated from Amherst College in 1985, with a B.A. in Biology, Phi Beta Kappa. He received his M.D. degree from Jefferson Medical College in 1989, and in the year following graduation, served a one year surgical internship at Pennsylvania Hospital, the first hospital in the United States. His Orthopaedic Surgery residency was completed at Thomas Jefferson University, and following residency he completed a fellowship in Orthopaedic Sports Medicine at the University of Cincinnati, where he was an assistant team physician with the Cincinnati Bengals of the NFL, as well as with the University of Cincinnati.

A career long resident of Delaware and Chester Counties who began practice in 1995, Dr. Hummer is President of the Orthopaedic Associates Division of Premier, and he is also past President of and a current member of the Board of Directors of both the Pennsylvania Orthopaedic Society and the Delaware County Medical Society. He is a Board Certified member of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons, serves on the Medical Liability Committee of that organization, and is also a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons as well as a member of the American Orthopaedic Society for Sports Medicine. He maintains medical staff privileges at the Crozer Keystone Health System and Riddle Memorial Hospital.

Dr. Hummer is currently the Director of Sports Medicine and Team Physician for Swarthmore College, and was recently chosen to be the Team Physician for the Philadelphia Union of Major League Soccer. He believes that optimum care for patients with bone and joint pain or injury is community based and personal, allowing for a strong patient-physician working relationship.

He resides in Glen Mills with his wife and two children.
