

Raymond M. Wolfe, M.D.

Dr. Wolfe joined Premier in November, 2003. He graduated from Georgetown University School of Medicine in May, 1995. He joined Premier in November, 2003. Dr. Wolfe is a board-certified Orthopaedic Surgeon who practices general orthopaedic surgery with a special interest in sports medicine and problems of the shoulder.

Certification: . American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery

Education: . B.S.-Biology, University of Scranton
. M.S.-Physiology, Georgetown University Graduate School
. M.D., Georgetown University School of Medicine

Post Graduate:
Medical Center . Internship in General Surgery, Georgetown University
Medical Center . Residency in Orthopaedics, Georgetown University

Hospital Affiliations: . Crozer-Chester Medical Center
. Springfield Hospital
. Brinton Lake Surgi-Center
. Riddle Memorial Hospital

Professional Organizations: . American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons
. American College of Surgeons
. Pennsylvania Orthopaedic Society